HOUSE-CAGED WOMEN

How Not to Become That Sorrowful Thing, a Nervous Female.

If suddenly by some great miracle the | compound. Its remarkable control multitude of human beings who are seriously ill, and those who actually suffer pain, could be relieved, the good work would only be begun.

There would still remain the great army of "the nervous."

For every downright sick person there are a hundred who go about their business weary from pain and bodily weakness-and the nervous, the feeble, the ailing, are met on every hand. These earliest small beginnings must and practical of all remedies, Paine's celery compound, is able to give, comes in no small measure from the compound. in no small measure from the fact that the inestimable value of Paine's celery by its use men and women who are compound for recruiting the strength. "run-down," weak and nervous build up their bodies, give tone to their digestive organs and feed their ex-hausted nervous system before their weakness has progressed into chronic sunshine of bounding health and spirits

Nature tends to keep healthy. Give her a chance and she will throw off disease as something unnatural and disturbing. This great nerve and blood food, with which the name of its discoverer, Prof. Edward E. Phelps, M.D., Lt. D., of Dartmouth college, will always be associated, this most remark-whose picture begins these columns: able remedy of the close of the 19th century, has saved countless numbers of men and women from lifelong and often from fatal diseases.

No such preventive remedy has ever

Prof. Phelps prepared Paine's celery wonderful benefit from it.

Birthday Trolley Party. Monday evening a birthday trolley party was given in honor of George W. Lewis of 22 Woolsey street. The car, which was chartered from the New Haven Street Railway company, was very elaborately decorated with heliotrope and yellow bunting, silk flags and strings of popcorn. The decorations were furnished by the New Haven Decorating company of Meadow street. The car was ably managed by Assistant Superintendent Colton and Conductor Piercy, who joined the party in their merriment. The music was furnished by Professor Miller and Professor Beecher prompted for the dancing, which took place at Lake Whitney. The party first proceeded to Morris Cove and from there to Mr. Blakeslee's new place at the lake, where a fine supper was served and dancing was indulged in until 12 o'clock. The party then left for New Haven, all expressing many wishes to remain longer. committee of arrangements were Mrs. G. W. Lewis, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Durant, Mrs. Herbert Clark and N. E. Farnham. Soon after leaving the corner of Church and Chapel street a grab bag was produced containing a souvenir for each member of the party which made much sport. Those who took part in the festivities of the evening were Fire Commissioner Charles Andrews, Captain William Johnson of 8's engine house, Mr. Aleck Wallace, Mrs. Baker, Mrs. Groso, Osborn Thompson, conductor on the Edgewood line, Miss May Johnson, R. S. Scobie and lady, Mr. and Mrs. Beecher, N. E. Farnham and lady, Miss Robertia Farnham of Brooklyn, Harvey Pond, Joseph Miller, the Misses Connor of Spring street, Miss Annie Learie, Mrs. Turner, Edle Bradley, Miss Holmes of West Haven and E. E. Clark. The weather was quite unfavorable, but all was a success. Anyone giving trolley parties should patronize Mr. Blakelee's place, as it certainly beats any other one on the New Haven Street railway route

Adolph Spielberg of New York city, who has been confined in jail for several days, was yesterday released from custody on a writ of habeas corpus issued by Judge Studley of the common pleas court. The application was made by Attorney McNamara, counsel for Spielberg. The latter was arrested last Saturday on a fraud writ. He is a brother of Nicholas Spielberg, who was arrested for seducing fifteen-year-old Sarah Newman, It was claimed that Adolph Spellberg induced Max Rosenthal to give bonds for the release of his brother by fraudulently claiming to be the possessor of the necessary amount of property to in-demnify Rosenthal in case the bonds were forfeited. Nicholas forfeited the bonds of $500, and his brother was arrested on a fraud writ. Habeas corpus proceedings were instituted, and after Judge Studley had heard the case he late yesterday afternoon, ordered Spielberg's release from custody.

ANSONIA CASE. In the common pleas court late yesterday afternoon the jury, which has been hearing the suit of Lewis D. Cook, to recover $1,000 from the town of Anso nia because of damage to his property by change of grade. Judge Hotchkiss was on the bench, and the jury awarded the plaintiff $200 damages. After the verdlet had been announced Judge Munger gave notice of an intended appeal to the supreme court of errors. A DERBY CASE,

Work of Burglars in the Railroad Station at Torrington

Torrington, Jan. 22.-Burglars broke into the New York, New Haven and Hartford railroad station here between 2 and 3 o'clock this morning and blev open two safes. In the larger safe they secured about $60. Nothing of value was found in the other. The burglars did not open the ticket cabinet or any of the drawers in the ticket office. The burgiars first broke into the carpenter shop of T. D. Jansen, where they obtained chisels and other tools with which to the commit the burglary at the railroad station.

The Consolidated road has offered a reward for the capture of the burglars who are believed to be connected with the combination that broke into the company's depot at Larchmont early

At the Opening of the Market Lower Prices

New York, Jan. 23.-The stock market o-day was unsettled and weak. At the opening lower prices prevailed, owing to rumors from Washington that action n the railway pooling bill had been postponed. This led to a general decline of 1/4 to 11/4 per cent., New Jersey Central, Reading, Delaware and Hudson, Canada Southern and the grangers being most prominent in the downward tral was again a feature at this time, and rose to 89%.

In the afternoon, however, the bears were in control once more and the en-tire market was weak. Southern Railway, Reading, the grangers, Jersey Central, Cordage and Sugar were especially weak at this time. Southern Railway old down to 91/2, preferred to 331/4, Reading to 1014, St. Paul to 5514, Rock Island to 625, Burlington and Quincy to 71, Northwest to 951%, Jersey Central to 88 Cordage to 5%, preferred to 8% and the guaranteed to 18%. The first mortgage onds of the last named sold to 57, the lowest price on record. Reading was depressed on the foreclosure proceedings and the grangers on the belief that the St. Paul weekly statement due on Thursday will make a poor showing. The decline in the late trading was accelerated by the withdrawal of $1,500,000 gold from the sub-treasury for export o Europe

Chicago Gas ranged between 72% and 73% and closed at 73%, a net gain of 1/2 er cent, for the day, The impression gaining ground that the leading men the company have reached an amicable agreement and that the present management has consented to retire at an early date. The securities of the Brooklyn Railway companies listed at he stock exchange show very little change notwithstanding the strike and practical standstill of business. The bonds of the Union, Brooklyn and Kings County elevated roads are all a shade better, but business in them is limited.

Speculation closed weak, prices showing a decline of 16 to 2% per cent, Southern Railway preferred leading. Buffalo, Rochester and Pittsburg preferred
